Amenities

The City of Port Washington offers a touch of New England charm combined with Midwestern friendliness. Explore the city's beauty and history on the shore of Lake Michigan, just 30 miles north of Milwaukee.

Enjoy walking tours of the downtown historic district and harbor. You'll pass our two lighthouses; one a unique art deco design, and the other a museum. Visit specialty shops and boutiques, located in historic storefronts in our downtown district. Then dine at one of our locally owned restaurants.

Play outside - head to the marina and venture out charter-fishing. Head inland and golf one of the great courses in the area. Bike, hike, or bird on the 37 - mile Interurban Trail. Or, hit one of our two sandy beaches, relax, and just watch the ever-changing lake. And we have great festivals and events. You could encounter pirates, sail on a tall ship, indulge in a giant fish fry, tour a garden, browse a farmers market - and those experiences are just a sample.

We invite you to visit Port Washington, and see why Midwest Living named us to their Top 100 Best Midwest Small Town Getaways. And, if you are here scouting out a potential business opportunity, we think you will find the business climate and community here supportive and welcoming. Whatever brings you to Port Washington; we know you will love our people, our amenities, and our quality of life.
