Learn the risks facing kids in 2017!
ADULTS ONLY

Why was that kid in my medicine cabinet?
What can I do to help my kid deal with peer pressure?

February 1, 2017

Join us for a conversation around the risks facing youth in Port Washington.
This is an adults only event. The information shared with you will help you support your son/daughter and develop your own awareness of the risks facing kids in 2017. The conversation will range from drugs to alcohol.

Who: Parents of 5-12th grade children
When: 6:00pm-7:00pm
Where: Port High School Auditorium
Bonus: Pirate Pride hours for attendance
Presenters: Ted Neitzke, school administrator, drug expert and father
Ryan Hurdla, Port Washington police officer and uncle
Tim Dehring, police officer, drug expert, and father